Q. If we want to come early or stay later at the Myconian Imperial, will our group rate be extended?

A. Yes, our group's rate at the Myconian Imperial is extended for three (3) days pre and post of our group dates.

Q. What is the dress code/attire so I can prepare for packing?

A. For the majority of activities outdoor casual attire is appropriate. For the evening dinners, resort casual will suffice. This year's farewell dinner will be in a casual atmosphere and is themed “Mamma Mia”. (included in package) Add to the fun by dressing in all white or in vintage Mamma Mia costume! Mykonos in late September can be cooler in the evening. Be sure and bring a wrap or pack for layers. As well, a comfortable pair of walking shoes is suggested for use during all activities.

Q. What are my activity departure times?

A. When you check in with us at Myconian Imperial in Mykonos you will receive an activity card with your activity departure times and/or spa appointment times. Should you need them sooner, just email and we will provide. We will also have a representative from Optimum Greece on site Friday and Saturday for any needed assistance with activities.

Q. Are Dine Arouds a part of this trip?

A. Yes. On the evening of September 24th, you will have the option to choose between give (5) five restaurants – all within the Myconian Collection. During your registration you will be able to sign up for your preferred restaurant choice. Each restaurant description is located on the event website. Space at each restaurant will be limited with extremely limited availability to switch on-site. All restaurants will be served family-style.

Q. I plan to extend my stay. Who do I contact to plan that portion of my travel?

A. You are responsible for planning, ticketing, confirming all elements of your extended stay outside of REUNITE! Greece dates. Travel Outside the Lines has worked with Optimum Greece to provide options for pre and post extended travel in Athens and Santorini. Flight arrangements should be made on your own. (discuss with World Travel) Transportation to and from the airport in provided within the Optimum Greece package. A discounted rate at the noted hotels will be available as well.

Q. Do I need to book my own airfare, or can you assist?

A. TOTL has partnered with World Travel to assist in ticketing your airfare from your departure city all the way through to Mykonos. Once you have completed the REUNITE | Greece 2021 registration, an agent with World Travel will contact you to begin working with you on the most convenient flight itinerary. World Travel can also assist in securing Travel Insurance for the trip if you are interested in doing so.

Q. How do I get to the Myconian Imperial from the airport?

A. Travel Outside the Lines has arranged for ground transportation for all attendees arriving on September 23 into the Airport in Mykonos. After claiming your baggage and clearing customs, look for our agent holding a “Travel Outside the Lines” sign to transport you to the Myconian Imperial. DO NOT secure your own ground transportation. If you are arriving earlier than September 28 you will be on your own for transportation to the Myconian Imperial. (unless you have been otherwise notified)

Q. Have more questions?
